Jack Had An Off Day.

Jack Anthony, the erstwhile invincible, that his very bad off day. He had four chances and accepted only one of them, all wing two-fly balls to get out of his hands and permitting a line drive for a single to pass through his feet and hands and go to the fence. Reggy, the third haseman for the visitors, who smcked the ball away for the single, circled the bases before the ball could be returned. This was but the beginning of the end. Two other runners came over in this liming, Eckstone going in to do the honors.

In the fourth inning when two men were out, and two on the bases, Jack dropped a fly to center and both men scored. Only two more flies went to Jack's territory and he took care of one Tied in the Fifth.

The fifth inning was the one to bring the Richmond fans to their feet, and start the real yelling. Two hits one of which was a two-bagger by Cuddy, and which was a two-bagger by Cuddy, and four errors, two by Bierman, and one by Reggy, and another by Benny, gave the Lawmakers the five tallies and put the score tied.

Neither side scored in the sixth inning, but there was the lucky seventh for the Danville crowd, and they made the score boy mark eight runs on the board.

Richmond scored twice in the eighth and the ninth opened and gave the Danville crowd four more tallies, sending e crowd four more tallies, sending score shooting up to seventeen. Rich-nol scored a like number and made one dozen to the good. This was all and the crowd left.

To-day the story will be different. Colina may pitch for the visitors and Long will likely twirt for Richmond. The official score is as follows:

the game to-day and won by a score of 5 to 4. Portsmouth presented an almost new team under the management of Barley Kain; twelve hits and no errors was the record of their work against three hits and three errors for Norfolk. Otey was knocked out of the box in the seventh inning and Leonard replaced him.

Portsmouth kept up the batting streak and scored two runs in the next two innings. Reveile pitched a brilliant game until the seventh inning, when he filled the bases on balls and allowed two doubles. This resulted in four runs, the game was witnessed by 2000 people, and was called in the eighth inning on account of darkness. The feature was the all-round playing of Fischmann.

The game was almost featureless, ex-cept the fielding of Bowen at second for the locals and his long drive over center for a home-run in the sixth. The game of the Shoemakers was loose enough, but that of the Highlanders was ranker still. Two runs were all the home team were entitled to as far as Shiner is concerned, and, but for Cook's

GOSSIP HEARD ON LOCAL DIAMOND

Lee Sharp, Utility Man for Shaffer, Goes to Portsmouth Team.

Lee Sharp, the Fulton boy, who can play almost any position on the ball field and who has been used as utility man by Manager Shaffer. Is now with 'Barley' Kain in Portsmouth, having been loaned to that team by Manager Shaffer. It is understood that the change will be for the best, financially speaking, to Lee.

With Titman, Hicks and Anthony in the outfield, the Lawmakers ought to have one of the best batting outfields in the league. Jack will get himself to-gether in a day or two, and there will be no repetition of yesterday's work.

Manager Benny, of the Danville nine, is somewhat crippled at present in his pitching force. Charters and Rickards are the only two men who are in good shape, and of late Rickards has been working overtime.

Colina, a good twirler and a good hit-ter, has the rheumatism in his back and may not be in fit condition to work for several days.

Peyton Charters, the Manchester boy, who can do good work in the box, will twirl for the Tobacconists to-day, and he says that he will get all the revenge that he wants.

Bierman, conceded to be the fastest shortstop in the league, was a little too fast yesterday, and got one over McKenziels head several feet.

Benny is fortunate in having men who can play almost any position on the field. McKenzie, who held down file first sack yesterday, and who pitched the last game, will so in to twirl Saturday's game, and it is said that he has a combination of speed and curves.

Interesting Deals in East Main Street Property-Valentine House Sold.

F. Murray, has been sold to Mr. W. C. Schmidt, of the Herman Schmidt Grocery Company. It is understood that the price paid was $18,500. Mr. Schmidt has also purchased the property next adjoining on the east, for which he paid $15,000. Mr. Schmidt declines at present to say what he proposes to do with the property, but it is believed that he will remove the buildings now on it to make room for an up-to-date husiness block.

The residence of Rev. Dr. E. N. Calisch, corner Grace and Ryland Streets, has been sold by Henry S. Hutzler & Company for $10,250. The purchaser was Mr. James McGraw, who will improve the property and occupy it as a residence. Harry D. Eichelberger has become the owner, so it is said, of the valuable Broad, Ninth and Capitol Street property known as the Valentine House. This is a most valuable property, heretofore owned by the Valentine calate, and it is understood that the consideration for which it passed to the ownership of Mr. Eichelberger was something like $50,000.

While the property is now good for renting purposes, it is believed that the new owner has purchased to p. down and rebuild and the probability is that a big modern sfructure will ere long cover the entire ground.

The real estate deents report increased activity in suburban property and they hint that a number of interesting sales have been, or are just about to be made, but they will not give particulars.

COMMISSIONERS, AUCTION SALE OF

VALUABLE FARM, valuable: Fakin, in Powhatan county, Va., with good dwelling of 8 or 10 rooms, situated in a nice grove, and other improvements, at Payne's Siding, on the Southern Railroad.
Acting under a decree of the Circuit Court of Powhatan county, Va., entered on the 6th day of April, 1966, in the cause of isabella S. Pilkinton vs. Edwin T. Pilkinton et als., the undersigned special commissioner appointed for the purpose will sell, by public auction, to the highest bidder, on the premises, on Tuesday, May 29, 1906, at 3 P. M.

The real estate described in said decree as follows: "All that certain tract or parcel of land in the county of Powhatan, State of Virginia, adjacent to Payne's Siding, on the Southern Railroad, containing 307 acres, together with all the improvements thereon, and adjoining the lands of W. A. Parsons and Ulysses, Jones, on the north and west, and the lands known as the William Spears tract and the Rudd tract, on the south and cast," The situation is commanding, with a beautiful view of the surrounding country, and its railroad facilities make it a desirable home for party wishing to do business in the city.

TERMS—Cash as to one-third of purchase price, and the bulance in installments of one and two years, taking bonds for the deterred payments, bearing interest from the day of sale, and title to be retained until all of the purchase money shall have been paid in full, brail cash, at option of purchaser.

HASKINS HOBSON, Special Commissioner, "The bond required of the special commissioner by the decree rendered in said cause has been duly given." 3 P. M.
